

RED MOUNTAIN BOYS

High-Country Neo-Traditional Bluegrass

“Bluegrass music today is so broad, it could be for anyone.

We like making converts of those folks that say they don't like bluegrass.”

~ Jeff Daugherty - Mandolin, Vocals

The Red Mountain Boys are a hot new bluegrass super-group out of Colorado Springs, CO. Comprised of decorated and well-known veterans of the scene, the Red Mountain Boys play neo-traditional bluegrass music - meaning they offer original compositions played in a traditional single-mic bluegrass style. Four-part vocal harmonies and award-winning instrumentation combine with world-class creative songwriting - a recipe for powerful, hard-driving bluegrass music.
